

22nd International Workshop on Computational Nanotechnology

June 12th-16th 2023 Barcelona

The IWCN is the leading forum for discussions on current trends and future directions for nanotechnology computations. The venue will be Casa Convalescencia, a modernist building in the center of Barcelona city.

2nd Call for papers

<https://iwcn2023.uab.es>

IMPORTANT DEADLINES:

Abstract submission: February 10th 2023
Acceptance notification: March 10th 2023
Early bird registration: April 19th 2023

AUTHORS: Prospective authors are invited to submit a 2-page abstract, 1 page of text and 1 of figures, for oral or poster presentations on the topics:

- 1.- Multiscale and multiphysics simulations
- 2.- Simulation of nanodevice processing and performance
- 3.- Electronic structure calculations
- 4.- Computational design and evaluation of engineered nanomaterials/nanostructures
- 5.- Simulations of electronic, optical and mechanical properties of nanostructures
- 6.- Simulations of electronic, thermal, spin and molecular transport processes
- 7.- First principles calculations in the context of transport studies
- 8.- Novel architectures for nanodevices

SATELLITE WORKSHOP: The 5th edition of the International Wigner Workshop \(IWW\) will take place as a satellite workshop at the beginning of the conference, from June 11-12, 2023, at the same venue as the IWCN.
